14. Disclosure for Collection. Attorney and Client agree that this document, billings, and other information and documents may be disclosed by Attorney, if in Attorney's reasonable judgment, such information may be helpful to resolve any claim arising from or relating to the subject of this agreement, including, but not limited to the collection of fees earned pursuant to this agreement. For instance, Client agrees that Attorney may provide Client's financial documents to a collection agency to assist in collection of fees and costs.

    Attorney fees for collection. If Attorney initiates litigation to collect fees or costs, Client agrees to pay Attorney's fees and costs regardless of whether the litigation is through Attorney's firm, a collection agency, or an another attorney. Client is not entitled to attorney fees if Client prevails.

15. Liens and Claims Against Recovery and/or Property. Client authorizes Attorney to pay out of any recovery any outstanding costs, fees, expenses, liens, and claims made against the recovery before Client receives any award of recovery. Client authorizes Attorney to endorse on Client's behalf settlement checks for deposit into a non-interest bearing client trust account. Client authorizes Attorney to place an Attorney Fee Lien on any property that Client owns and/or is awarded to secure Attorney Fees in the event that Client has an outstanding balance owing at the time the case is finalized.

16. Responsibility for Fees. Client understands that Client is personally responsible for the payment of all fees and costs, whether or not the court orders any other person to pay Client's fees and costs.

17. Consent to Terms. Client acknowledges reading a copy of this Agreement and consents to its terms. Client is advised to seek independent legal counsel of Client's own choosing if Client wants legal advice on the merits of this contract or any provisions herein.
